c. The former casino at the entrance to the above barracks has been renovated and is occupied by a headquarters unit formerly located in the Mirkisch Electrical Works in western EBERSWALDE. Vehicle traffic at this point repeated series given in Paragraph 1b above.

d. Another barracks, at the eastern exit of EBERSWALDE and south of the EBERSWALDE-BAD FREIENWALDE highway, consists of fourteen building blocks, completely occupied. Estimated strength is 4,000 men. Nine garages were observed; others, source believes, may exist behind billets. Two of the nine sheds contained a total of 23 tanks; the remaining sheds were empty. In the yard were four JS-3, two T-34/85, and six more tanks. Vehicle traffic [REDACTED]

2. BERNAU (296), 6 November 1949

a. A barracks located at the Autobahn-Schönow highway crossing is held by about 3,500 men wearing armored and artillery insignia, who are said to have returned during the last month from the Schorfheide training area. They arrived by rail from the direction of EBERSWALDE in groups of 30-50 men. Officers were seen proceeding from this barracks to a building on the Weinbergsweg (a cross street on the Berliner Chaussee), which may contain a headquarters staff. Passenger cars parked there were [REDACTED]

c. The BMW Werke in BERNAU is working on private cars and motorcycles, although one of its repair shops is retained by the Russians as a storage depot for tank treads. Truck [REDACTED] loaded with treads, departed this site in the direction of HANDELITZ.

d. There are approximately 400 Volkspolizei in BERNAU. It is rumored that the Soviet clothing office may be taken over as billets for the police school.

3. BAD FRIEDENAU (V28), 6 November 1949

a. About 1,700 young troops occupy four building blocks situated one and a half kilometers southeast of BAD FRIEDENAU on the Berlin road. §§ They wear black shoulder straps/red piping and some have armored insignia. These troops are said to have arrived from the direction of KREBS-BAU during the last month. §§§

b. Twenty-six trucks on jacks were seen in garages which have an estimated capacity of 120 vehicles. The fuel dump near these sheds consists of 100-liter barrels, all buried in the ground. There was brisk traffic between this barracks and BERGHEIM by vehicles in [REDACTED].

c. According to the an employee of a cattle purchasing cooperative in BAD FRIEDENAU, the meat quota awarded from it earlier in 1949 was transferred to a similar cooperative in BERLIN during the summer.

Comments:

§ We have no record of the Ardet Werke. It is conceivable that the Ardet Werke is indicated.

§§ The exact tank figure is open to question. The original states, "In diesen beiden Hallen sind 48 Panzer abgestellt." The reader may judge whether this equivocation means a total of 48 or 96 tanks.

§§ Presumably this refers to the former Kradschützen Kaserne.

§§§ [REDACTED] 18 September 1949) BAD FRIEDENAU strength as 1,500 armored and artilleryman, half former tenants, half recruits, "all of whom have been returning by rail from the Schorfheide area in small groups." [REDACTED]
